State Department High Ranking Officers Shake Up Starts; Arrive For Surrender Grew Is Replaced

Dean Acheson Named Undersecretary — Dunn, Rockefeller, Holmes Slated To Go

MAY NAME GREW MacARTHUR AIDE

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.

—The long-awaited shakeup of the state department was under way today. Authorities predicted further important changes will be made among high ranking aides of Secretary of State James F. Byrnes within the next week.

The first change was the appointment of Dean Acheson as undersecretary to succeed Joseph C. Grew. This caused some surprise among state department observers. Reports had been that Acheson would resign as assistant secretary, where he maintained liaison between the department and congress, to practice law.

He was even reported to have been offered the job of solicitor for the justice department.

Friends With Congress

Acheson's appointment appeared to indicate that Byrnes, following the example of President Truman, would insist on having aides who are on good terms with congress.

Acheson is that. But his appointment leaves the top levels of the department void of persons with experience in foreign diplomatic service. Grew, his predecessor, had 40 years of foreign service, the last 10 as ambassador to Tokyo. The remainder in Europe, Latin-America and other posts.

Observers felt certain that Grew will be used in an advisory capacity on matters affecting Japan, where expert advice in the political field is most badly needed.

It was believed possible that he might be induced to become political advisor to Gen. Douglas MacArthur in connection with the occupation of Japan.

Of the assistant secretaries now in office, most of whom are expected to be replaced, are the veteran James C. Dunn, head of the European division, Nelson Rockefeller, chief of the Latin American division, and Lucius Holmes, head of the personnel division.

Will Clayton, now delegate to the United Nations relief and rehabilitation commission, is expected to be replaced.

PA NEWC Observes

Thought for the day: wonder what the store clerks will say, now that they won't be able to say, "don't you know there's a war on?" Incidentally, a lot of clerks PA Newc know will have to brush up on their salesmanship manners.

It was like old times to pull into the gas station this morning and say "five gallons please".

PA Newc has been informed of one section of our city, where young people, sitting on the front porches until the wee small hours of the morning, make so much noise that the neighbors do not get their night's rest. It seems that people who need heavy sleep in order to work the next day should be shown some consideration.

During the celebrations preceding and following the presidential announcement of Japan's capitulation, city operators faced considerable difficulty in operating buses through heavy lanes of traffic. However, they did so with caution.

East Washington street took on its normal appearance today with shoppers rushing hither and yon in search of various articles. During yesterday there were few pedestrians in East Washington street.

New Jap Cabinet Plans For Peace

New Cabinet Not Dominated By War Lords—Premier Picked Without Elder Statesmen

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.

(INS)—The official Japanese Domei agency said today that the first task of the new Japanese cabinet would be the signing of peace terms and the fulfillment of the Potsdam declaration.

Domei followed a report of the swearing in of Gen. Prince Naruhiko Higashi-Kuni's cabinet with a discussion of its forthcoming duties and an apparent pledge of Japan's cooperation in bringing about complete cessation of hostilities.

"Once we have laid down our arms, the Domei dispatch said, "we must take up matters with absolute calmness. If there should be any incident in violation of his majesty's command, we will lose the confidence of the world. The new cabinet must see to it that the work is carried out with the greatest care."

At the first meeting of the new cabinet this afternoon (Japan time) Domei said, the new premier reviewed the "course of developments and asked members to "cooperate fully."

Domei declared the cabinet's future would be very difficult because of the "mountainous" problems that "must be swiftly and efficiently disposed of."

B-29s Destroy Greatest Part Of 58 Jap Cities

GUAM, Aug. 17.—(INS)—U. S. Strategic Air Forces Headquarters announced today in a summary of B-29 operations that the big bombers destroyed the major portion of the industrial capacity of 58 Japanese cities during raids since November 24, 1944.

The B-29s flew more than 100 million miles in dropping 169,421 tons of bombs on Japan. During these raids, headquarters said, 437 Superforts were lost.

Headquarters said that 297 B-29 crews (approximately 3,000 men) were lost. Naval rescue "agencies" (submarines and "dumbo" flying boats) rescued a total of more than 600 B-29 crewmen.

"Final and accurate evaluation of results of B-29 operations must await completion of photographic reconnaissance and ground survey," the headquarters communique reported.

Shanghai-Nanking Evacuated By Japs

LONDON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—A London Daily Mail dispatch from Chungking today quoted reports that the Japanese had evacuated Shanghai and Nanking.

Another report was to the effect that Shanghai will be the future headquarters of U. S. armed forces in China.

CELEBRANTS KILL FIVE

LONDON, Aug. 17.—The Netherlands news agency reported today that at least five persons were killed and 71 injured during the night when a skyrocket exploded a munitions case aboard a British warship moored at Rotterdam.

The rocket was fired during Rotterdam's victory celebration and landed squarely in the munitions case.

American, British, Australian Officers At MacArthur's Headquarters

HIGH RANKING OFFICERS 1

MANILA, Aug. 17.—(INS)—High ranking United States, British and Australian officers arrived at General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters today for Japan's formal surrender ceremony.

Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey, commander in chief of the Australian army, headed the Australian party and a mission headed by Maj. Gen. W. R. C. Penney came from Lord Louis Mountbatten's Southeast Asia command.

Melbourne radio said that Australian troops will participate in the occupation of Japan.

The United States War Department sent a mission headed by Brigadier General C. L. Dasher and J. B. Stadler.

Union Seeks To Re Open Contracts—Ask Termination Of War Labor Board

By PHILLIPS J. PECK (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The government issued today a peace-time labor policy which eased wage controls and requested unions and industry to refrain from rocking the boat during the difficult reconversion era.

President Truman inaugurated an emergency six-point program by terminating the rigid, war-time "little steel" wage freeze. He also appealed for a renewal of the no-strike, no-lockout pledges until a forthcoming labor-management parity can chart a permanent course.

Reaction Prompt

The reaction from labor was prompt. CIO President Philip Murray announced that:

1. Most CIO unions—those covering major industries—will seek to reopen their contracts and obtain higher wage rates to offset losses in overtime and other war premiums while the cost of living continues high.

2. The wartime no-strike pledge now is supplanted by clauses in CIO contracts, having nearly a year to (Continued on Page Two)

Arnold To Retire As Air Force Head

Announces A New Super-bomber Capable Of Over 5,000 Mile Flight Range

By JOSEPH A. BORS (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Gen. H. H. Arnold disclosed today that the United States has developed a gigantic new super-bomber, greater than the B-29, with a range of more than 5,000 miles to insure peace in the post-war world.

Arnold, commanding general of the Army Air Forces, made the disclosure at a special news conference.

The general also promised that Tokyo would be used as a defensive base and that fantastic new weapons of a "Buck Rodgers variety" were being developed.

Will Retire

Arnold also revealed that he planned soon to step out as chief of the Army Air Forces although he declined to give a specific date.

The general stressed the importance of American research to develop weapons so fantastic and terrible that aggressor nations would fear to start another conflict.

Arnold refused to discuss in detail the powerful new bomber and would not compare it to the B-29 or the B-32 except in vague terms.

"We have a plane today coming along which is considerably better than the B-29 and has better than a 5,000-mile range," Arnold said.

He added that America also is developing new types of buzz bomb and rocket weapons which have explosive heads that will make them automatically explode on reaction to heat, light and metal.

Arnold foresaw the day when long-range bombers with jet propulsion (Continued on Page Two)

Sen. Thomas Urges Three Year Plan Of Public Works

Oklahoma Senator Proposes Congress Appropriate Two Billion Per Year

WILL PROVIDE JOBS FOR UNEMPLOYED

By WILLIAM S. NEAL (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Sen. Elmer Thomas, (D) Okla., proposed today that Congress immediately upon reconvening appropriate funds to set in motion a three-year public works program costing more than two billions annually.

Thomas pointed out Congress already has enacted authorizing legislation for much of the program, including flood control, rivers and harbors, highway, rural electrification and reclamation works.

"We could easily put two billions a year for three years into things that are going to be built anyway, and it would provide many jobs."

Oppose WPA

Thomas declared that he would oppose creation of a new WPA to handle the jobs. He asserted that it is far better to supplement private industry with public works.

He said that the Senate appropriations non-military sub-committee, of which he is chairman, asked the chief of Army engineers recently for a list of rivers and harbors and other public works which could be started immediately. He was advised that 200 million dollars could be used to start the program.

In addition, Thomas said he would urge a bill authorizing expenditures of one billion dollars for public works in co-operation with states, counties and cities on the order of the Federal Works Agency of depression days. Under this program, he said, the federal government would aid in the construction of hospitals, schools and other public buildings.

Economy Coming

While Congress is expected to provide huge expenditures for public works, Thomas predicted an economy (Continued on Page Two)

Takijiro Onishi Out By Hara-Kiri

Originator Of Kamikaze Pilot Attacks Join Honorable Ancestors

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The Japanese Navy ministry announced today that Vice Admiral Takijiro Onishi, "originator" of suicide air attacks by Kamikaze pilots, committed suicide yesterday in Tokyo.

Tokyo radio in May revealed that Onishi was the "originator" of the suicide air attacks.

Onishi, vice chief of Japan's Naval general staff, was the third high-ranking Jap official to kill himself following Japan's capitulation. Three days ago War Minister Gen. Korechika Anami committed harakiri. Major General Kunitomi Okamoto, military attaché in Switzerland, committed suicide.

The Japanese Navy announced, recorded by the FCC, did not refer to Onishi's work in devising the suicide plane tactics, but it did disclose that he left a suicide note addressed to the spirits of members of the special attacks corps.

In the note he expressed his "gratitude" to them.

Dinner At 6:30

At 6:30 o'clock, members, teachers and guests filed into the dining room, where a delicious full course dinner was served on long tables. Fresh flowers added a gay note to the tables, and the patriotic spirit prevailed in the red, white and blue candles lit on the tables. As a favor marking each place was a booklet, "Remember When," which contained little anecdotes and stories of the earlier days, compiled by the committee.

The group sang "America" preceding the dinner with E. E. Branstetter, pianist, followed by the invocation by John Haley, Sr. Flanking the speakers' tables were two huge displays of the flags of the allied nations, with the American flag prominently in place.

Shoe Ration End Seen By October, Ease Travel Ban

More Shirts, Shorts, pajamas Promised—Athletic Events To Be Okay

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The Office of Defense Transportation is expected today to relax voluntary travel restrictions affecting scores of professional, collegiate and high school athletic teams.

Revelation of the self-imposed sports agreements to limit travel is expected to permit the playing of the world series in October. 13 professional football non-championship games during the fall and post-season "bowl" contests next winter.

Travel Limitations

An ODT spokesman said that travel limitations on the movement of rare horses and show animals will remain in effect. He said, however, the restrictions "may be lightened and there is a chance they will be relaxed. But he emphasized that the ban is not expected to be lifted immediately."

With controls over automobile and motorcycle racing already rescinded, sports fans—evidently still returning G.I. allies—could look forward to a virtual resumption of pre-war sports standards this year.

The cheering sports news paced the improved outlook for the home-front in the government's based reconversion program to peacetime (Continued on Page Two)

Martin Gantz Reunion Held In Cathedral Thursday Night Proves Successful

Peace has entered the world this year of 1945, and with new hope in the hearts of all—Martin Gantz's numbering to approximately 1,000 gathered at the Cathedral for their annual reunion of pupils and school teachers. This year the reunion proved one of the best held.

Around 5 o'clock the "old school bell" rang for many former classmates and teachers, and they assembled a little earlier to reminisce and exchange bits of news of the "good old days."

Would Sink Ship With Atomic Bomb

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The Navy may try to sink a battleship with an atomic bomb in a spectacular postwar test.

Sen. David I. Walsh, D-Mass., chairman of the senate naval affairs committee, said today that he expects the atomic bomb to be used by the Navy to determine its effect on warships, especially the effect of near misses.

"The Navy could use an obsolete vessel in the test," said Walsh. "It is being discussed."

After World War I the Army allowed the late Brig. Gen. Billy Mitchell, pioneer advocate of air power, to test the effect of bombs on obsolete ships.

No Position

"I'm not going to take any position on it, one way or the other, when Congress reconvenes. It's up to the War department to convince our committee that it's necessary."

Previously May had supported strongly the War department's stand, in which the Navy joined for compulsory universal military training after the war. The views of the Army and Navy were embodied in legislation which May sponsored in the House.

The Army-Navy program strongly backed by the American Legion, would require all "able-bodied" men of 18 to 21 to take one year of military training.

Shortly after he introduced his bill, May predicted that the program (Continued on Page Two)

Pennsylvania Prepares For Reconversion Period—Protect Jobless Workers

By JOHN PAGET (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Pennsylvania dotted today after almost six years of war and prepared to pace the nation back into record-breaking peace time production.

Since 1939, when Pennsylvania's industries began supplying the war needs of countries facing the Nazis, the state has compiled one of the greatest production records in history but the end of the war with Japan signaled the beginning of a new era in which peace time output will be geared to the nation's demands.

The State War Manpower Commission expects little employment change in heavy industries while the State Planning Board has indicated that demands for consumer goods should take up the job slack after companies have switched to peace time production.

The Commonwealth was preparing to shoulder its responsibilities in the post war era. In addition to protecting idle workers with unemployment compensation, the state shortly will inaugurate a gigantic (Continued on Page Two)

Oslo Blast Kills Troops-Civilians

OSLO, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Many German troops as well as native fishermen and dock workers were feared killed today when an ammunition store blew up in the Oslo dock area.

A troop train loaded with more than 2000 German soldiers was passing the three-story building housing the ammunition stores when the explosion occurred. Many were believed killed or wounded.

American and British troops in the area immediately were called to aid in the rescue work.

The terrific explosion which rocked the entire dock area, leveled the three-story building and many small houses nearby.

The explosion was touched off about noon. The cause is unknown.

Peacetime Draft Need New Doubted By Chairman May

Military Affairs Chairman Says Army Will Have To Convince Committee

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The Army's chief proponent in Congress of peacetime compulsory military training expressed doubt today whether it was necessary.

Rep. May (D-R.), chairman of the House Military Affairs committee, struck a blow at the Army's plan for postwar universal service when he stated:

"I'm not going to take any position on it, one way or the other, when Congress reconvenes. It's up to the War department to convince our committee that it's necessary."

Previously May had supported strongly the War department's stand, in which the Navy joined for compulsory universal military training after the war. The views of the Army and Navy were embodied in legislation which May sponsored in the House.

Launch Ferocious Counter-Attacks In Spite Of Surrender—Yanks Drop Leaflets

Manila, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Fighting on Luzon continued today as fanatical Jap troops launched a counter-attack against American positions despite Nippon's acceptance of unconditional surrender terms.

The enemy attack took place in mountainous terrain to the northern sector of the island and a broadcast from a 32nd aviation outpost brought the terse statement:

"Yes, the war is over—all over these bloody hills and here."

In an effort to acquaint remnants of the Jap garrison that their emperor had ordered them to lay down their arms, only reconnaissance planes dropped 100,000 leaflets telling the enemy troops of peace and instructing them to surrender.

In addition, broadcasts were made in Japanese from other low-flying cubs and by loudspeakers set up in some areas.

BULLETIN 2:15 P. M.

MANILA, Aug. 18.—(Saturday)—(INS)—The Japanese government sent a radio message to General Douglas MacArthur today saying their surrender emissaries had been selected and would leave Tokyo for Manila Sunday.

The message, referred by the FCC, was sent after a crack-down command by MacArthur to Japan to obey his orders without further delay.

The Japanese message to MacArthur said:

"Our representative to Manila selected. Due to necessary internal procedures he is scheduled to leave Tokyo Aug. 19."

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MANILA, Aug. 17.—Gen. Douglas MacArthur cracked down on the Japanese today with an order to comply with his orders for surrender negotiations without further delay.

The Allied supreme commander told the Japs that his initial directives were perfectly clear.

The Japs tried to tell MacArthur that his instructions concerning the powers of the Jap emissaries he ordered Emperor Hirohito to send to Manila were not clear.

In a preliminary message today, the supreme commander showed beyond any doubt that his patience was wearing thin at the dilatory tactics of the Japs.

Senator Walsh Asks Navy Department For Complete Record Of Pearl Harbor

By ERWIN D. SIAS (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Sen. David I. Walsh, D-Mass., chairman of the Senate Naval Affairs committee, today called upon the Navy department for a complete record of its investigation into the Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor.

In a letter to Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal, Walsh also asked that the Navy make recommendations regarding release of its report to the public.

The senator informed Forrestal that there is certain to be a strong demand in Congress to determine who was responsible for the failure of the armed forces to prevent serious damage to the Japanese air attack on the Pacific base.

"It is requested, therefore," he said, "that the Senate committee on naval affairs be furnished with the complete file of investigations made (Continued on Page Two)

SLIPPERY ROCK

ALUMNI MEETS

Alumni of the 1911 class of Slippery Rock State Teachers College held their annual picnic at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davenport, on Slippery Rock Creek near Harlanburg on August 11.

Guests started to arrive at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and at 6:30 p. m. when heavily laden picnic tables had been set down, 65 former classmates sat down to heavily laden tables.

The assembled guests were from New Castle, Pittsburgh, and the surrounding district. Butler, Meridian, Slippery Rock, Harrisville, Avalon, Meador, Grove City, Elizabeth, Indiana, Edinboro, and Salem, O.

After dinner, some time was spent playing badminton and horseshoes and swimming.

Then the group gathered around a huge bonfire and held a meeting over which Dr. Beatty H. Dennis, head of the science department at Indiana State Teachers College, presided.

Professor C. C. Ruff of Slippery Rock, a former teacher of the class, and Mrs. Ruff were among the guests.

There were short talks by several alumni and silent prayer was offered for the men and women in service.

Plans were made for the 35th anniversary reunion to be held in May 1946 at Slippery Rock State Teachers College. Mrs. F. L. Davenport, of New Castle, Ford N. Dillworth, of Salem, O., and Howard S. Parker, of Edinboro, were named as the committee for this event.

The group promised to hold its summer picnic in August '46 at the Davenport cottage.

Melvin and closed with prayer following an address of Rev. Frank Maruso. During the celebration, witnessed by 250 employees of the plant, several songs and addresses were heard. Among those who rendered vocal numbers were Reed McCullough, Tony Izzi and Andrew De Lorenzo. The celebration was attended by the plant superintendent, army inspectors and veterans.

Learn how Endocrine helps to make the face look younger

The skin of your face and throat! Is it aging, losing its beauty? If so, try ENDOCRINE. For most women, ENDOCRINE... with its 8-year record of success... gets results hitherto thought impossible. For it helps to improve the skin itself, not merely its superficial appearance. Only ENDOCRINE contains ACTIVOL.

ACTIVOL is an effective, scientific replacement for woman's own skin-vitalizing substance. When you apply ENDOCRINE it is absorbed by the skin and helps to restore normal growth of cells and tissues. Thus the skin tends to become fresher, firmer, smoother, more youthfully beautiful again. Isn't this the best way you can invest your cosmetic dollars? Many report truly exceptional results in only 30 days.

Uniontown Man Drops Last Bomb

Flight Officer Shreck Thought To Be Last American To Bomb Japan

GUAM, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Flight Officer William Shreck of Uniontown, Pa., was credited today with releasing the last Superfort bomb on Japan.

The bomb was unleashed on a factory northeast of Isezaki at 3:24 a. m. Guam time, about five and a half hours before President Truman confirmed the Japanese surrender.

Shreck was bombardier aboard a Guam-based B-29 of the 31st wing. His plane was scheduled to drop incendiary bombs on Isezaki, northwest of Tokyo. However, the city was burning so furiously the B-29 crew chose, instead, to bomb the factory.

Shreck said he had an idea he might be making history at the time, although the pilot, Lt. James F. Leonard, N. D., said the crew was unaware of official confirmation of the peace bid until they returned to Guam.

Recalling the incident as he pressed the "pickle" to release the bomb, Shreck said:

"I knew the war was nearly over and it occurred to me I might be the last bombardier to drop a bomb on Japan."

WASHINGTON REPORT

of Congress on the potentialities of the atomic bomb, which brought atomic energy into the world with a blast that shattered Hiroshima and Nagasaki in Japan.

Here are some of the speculations they are coming up with:

If Russia lacks the process, or so long as she does not have it, her power will be diminished. In fact there is a lot of guessing in Washington as to what Marshal Stalin's reaction is to the news.

If nations the world over should, in the future, acquire the process, the power of small nations would soar, since a smaller country might hold power of life or death over cities of a powerful neighbor.

There is widespread comment that the discovery puts "teeth" into the United Nations Charter which the framers did not dream it would have.

If the secret is exclusively in the hands of the United States and Britain it will multiply the power of these nations in dealing with the rest of the world.

President Roosevelt believed that the assembly of the United Nations Organization would meet in various places such as Chungking, Washington, Paris, London, Moscow, Buenos Aires and Ottawa, it was disclosed by Clark E. Eichelberger, director of the American Association for the United Nations.

Eichelberger says he discussed the matter with F. D. R. on several occasions. The late chief executive felt, however, that the security council must have a permanent location where it can be in session continuously without interference, according to Eichelberger.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

Leaders have taken advantage of the situation to put the country largely on a "closed-shop" basis, which, regardless of concessions in the way of remission of initiation fees are made to the returning veterans, will, in effect, put them under the orders and at the economic mercy of the labor bosses, they are not going to like it. The President and the Congress will be wise, both in the personal sense and in the broader national sense, if they reflect upon this situation and deal with it as statesmen and not politicians.

dollars. While we expand our currency volume, we cut down our commodity volume.

Announced and indicated policies of government agencies regarding wages also point toward inflation. These agencies seem to ignore the repeated experience of history that costs must be related to wages and that abnormal wages mean abnormal prices for commodities, with a spiral of inflation inevitable.

Inflation is never accidental or spontaneous, but the result of a series of causes and effects. Wherever it has been serious, it almost invariably has originated in government. If we are to make any practical effort against financial distress following the war, the start should be made at the top—with the government itself showing some sense of the value of a dollar.

What People Say

(International News Service)

LONDON—King George VI: "We now have long, hard labor ahead before we can restore what's been lost. And we must establish an unshakable peace built on foundations not alone of strength, but also of moral authority."

ROME—Pope Pius XII: "We pray to see a rebirth of the world, wherein peace, truth and justice will reign in tranquility of the brotherhood of all peoples and all nations."

ABOARD ADMIRAL HALSEY'S FLAGSHIP—Admiral William F. Halsey: "Never again should tyrants be permitted to rise in a civilized world."

Renew Contract For War Plant

Army-Navy Cancels 350 Million In Contracts In Pittsburgh Ordnance District

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 17.—(INS)—First reports today of the effects of military contract cancellations disclosed at least three large Pittsburgh plants have closed, costing 3200 persons their jobs.

Army and navy officials said they have cancelled contracts totalling nearly $350,000,000.

Col. Robert C. Downie, Pittsburgh ordnance chief, reported the army alone had cancelled 150 prime contracts and between 500 and 600 sub-contracts.

The navy said it has contracts amounting to $50,000,000 in the district which extends from Charleston, W. Va., to Erie, Pa., and from Cambridge, O., to Altoona, Pa. Many of these contracts, which are handled by more than 100 firms, are being cancelled, officials said, and added the navy is retaining only those relating to research and development of naval war material.

The three plants reported closed down were the McKeesport works of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation, Ambidge Forging Mill of the National Supply company and the Christie Park works of the National Tube company, a U. S. Steel Corporation subsidiary.

The affected industries said they are retaining male employees as much as possible and dismissing women.

Colonel Downie also disclosed that the Miller Printing company, Pittsburgh, the only firm in the nation making the army's 75 mm. recoilless light artillery, had its contract renewed.

American Woman Traitor Nabbed

Constance Drexel Arrested
In Vienna By U. S. Troops
For Enemy Radio
Broadcasting

By JOSEF ISRAELIS II
U. S. S. Special Correspondent
VIENNA, Aug. 17.—Constance
Drexel, of Philadelphia, so-called "radio traitor" who broadcast from Berlin for the Nazis, was arrested today in Vienna by U. S. forces in Austria.

Criminal investigation soldiers located the woman through a lead supplied by Fred Wackernagel, Lancaster, (Pa.) correspondent for the U. S. information service branch.

The Philadelphia claimed that the Nazis paid her $32 weekly, used only her report of "theatre and musical events." She admitted knowing of her indictment in 1943 alone with Eva Peron, well known prostitute.

Denies Charges
She said she gave up when the Americans entered Vienna last, she "was talked with a lot of common criminals."

She is slightly built,
has gray-streaked hair, is about 60 years old and claims her broadcasts were not anti-Semitic.

The woman approached Wackernagel on the street, wearing a small U. S. flag in her suit lapel. She showed an American passport, along with a newspaper's identification from the League of Nations, and photographs of herself interviewing former German leader, Adolf Hitler.

Charming German birth, she revealed that she had registered for Vienna ration cards under the name she failed to recognize her. She gave her full name as Constance Louise Katherine Drexel.

The collarless lizard of "time-worn" dress is so-called because of the wrinkled black collar around the neck of the common Texas species.

noon at 1 o'clock.

After a most enjoyable social hour a business meeting was held with Mrs. Cline presiding. Miss Grace
McNulty led in prayer and ser-vatical reports were given.

Mrs. Archie Allen, Mrs. Cline, Mrs.
John Gresh and Mrs. Eva Campbell were chosen as delegates to the county convention.
Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: president, Mrs.
P. J. Fox; first vice president, Mrs.
Thomas Lindsey; second vice president, Mrs. Roy Graham; recording secretary, Mrs. Pearl Cope; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank Pein.
The group was pleased to have the president, Mrs. P. J. Fox, who is convalescing from an operation, present. Miss Twila Dault of Meadville was a special guest.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Archie Allen, Boyes avenue.

Urges Parents To Just Be Patient

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—(INS)—
Parents of servicemen were counseled today by Gov. Edward Martin not to expect their sons to be returned home immediately as a result of the end of the war.

"The taking over of Japan is the biggest so-called peace operation in the history of the world," he declared. "It is really an invasion and enough men and equipment for service must be provided for the occupying army."

Although the number of men has not been determined yet, he added,
"it will be quite large requiring sufficient equipment and transportation."

Commutes Sentence For Marshal Petain

Continue Salvage Of Paper And Tin

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—
A WPB spokesman said today that the paper, fats, and tin salvage drives will continue until these scarce materials are more plentiful.

The salvage campaigns were inaugurated in 1941 to help supplement stock piles of critical materials needed for the war effort.

The spokesman emphasized that the paper drive will be retained until paper manufacturers can obtain sufficient supplies of wood pulp to warrant the revocation of the salvage agreement.

Jap Major Helps Hunt Hide-Outs

GUAM, Aug. 17.—(INS)—A volunteer Jap major and 33 of his men, acting under military orders today were scouring Guam's hills and jungles in an effort to induce die-hard hold-outs of the defeated enemy garrison to surrender.

The Japs, all prisoners of war, were released under safe conduct passes issued by Maj. Gen. Henry Larsen, USMC, island commander, in an effort to bring in some 200
Jap troops still in hiding on the island.

The major and his men, who surrendered June 18 after holding out for ten months, became a symbol of resistance to the defeated island garrison. He was given a free hand by Larsen to conduct the search in his own way.

All American military personnel, as well as native Guamanians, were notified of the search and ordered not to fire on the Japs except in self protection or to safeguard property or military installations. Larsen also ordered all military units to accept the surrender of the enemy die-hards in a non-hostile manner.

The searching party was furnished with intelligence maps of the island, which the enlisted Japs said would point out known hiding places of the enemy stragglers.

LEND LEASE FATE

TO BE DETERMINED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—
President Truman conferred today with high government officials to thresh out the future of lend-lease.

Summoned to the conference were
Secretary of State Byrnes, Secretary of Treasury Vinson, Foreign Economic Administrator Crowley, Admiral William D. Leahy and War
Mobilizer and Reconversion Director
John W. Snyder.

No hint of the nature of the decisions was given at the White House.
The President will give a farewell dinner at the White House tonight to the combined chiefs of staff of the Allied nations who now that the war is ended soon will be leaving for their homes abroad.

They include high military and naval representatives from the United Kingdom, France, China,
Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and the Netherlands.

The President also held a brief conference with Secretary of Navy Forrestal and Admiral E. J. King in which they presented him with a model of the battleship Massachusetts.

er has been limited during the war.
Girls are also taking jobs as domestic workers, but most of the persons laid off are being signed up for unemployment compensation at the USES office.

The picture isn't quite as bad as it looks at first, explains George R. Gettings, manager of the office.
Many of the war workers were older men who will now retire, and many others were housewives who will now go back to their homes.

Time necessary for reconversion will vary with each industry, but the USES believes that most unemployed will be able to find work before the end of the 26-week period of unemployment compensation.

In fact, says Mr. Gettings, within 30 to 60 days Lawrence county should be in pretty good shape.

Grew Will Have Advisor Role In Control Of Japs

Former Ambassador Slated For High Place Because Of Experience In Far East

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Under Secretary of State Joseph C. Grew for ten years ambassador to Tokyo is reported to be scheduled for a major role in the post-war political control of Japan.

Grew, it was understood, will have a high place in advising on such important questions as retention of the Emperor and the economic and political controls of the empire.

Grew's retirement as undersecretary has long been considered inevitable following appointment of James F. Byrnes as secretary of state. The end of the Japanese war is understood to clinch this development.

In the past, ever since he was returned to the United States from a post-Pearl Harbor Jap internment camp, Grew has been the government's chief advisor on Far-Eastern affairs.

Grew's advice has often been criticized by outsiders but experts in the department believe him to be the best qualified person for the work.

As ambassador to Tokyo prior to the war he had been outstanding in his opposition to the military leaders who finally led Japan to war.

Following his return home he evangelized throughout the country on his views of what was needed to be done with Japan in defeat.

ODT Removes Ban On Fairs

Ban On Small Conventions Of 150 People Also Lifted By ODT Action

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The ODT Thursday announced removal of the ban on state and regional fairs during 1945 and relaxed restrictions on one of four attendance at conventions to permit gatherings of not more than 150 persons.

The convention order became effective Feb. 1. It limited attendance to not more than 50 persons. Appeals for permits to allow more than 50 persons had to be approved by the war committee on conventions.

This committee is still empowered to limit conventions to the new 150 per cent number.

ODT Director J. Monroe Johnson said that any other relaxation of transportation controls would have to be taken step by step in relation to overall requirements.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(INS)—A Tokyo radio report, which the Japanese announced today, stressed that Prince Fumimaro Konoye, premier when Japan launched her war against China, has been named to the new cabinet.

The report, heard by FCC, said three members of the fallen Suzuki cabinet also were among the first eight ministers chosen for the new cabinet by Gen. Prince Naruhiko Higashi-Kuni, a cousin of Emperor Hirohito.

Higashi-Kuni was named premier earlier today.

Censor Congratulates American Newspapers

For the past three years James E. Warner, veteran Washington correspondent, has been one of the small group of professional newsmen under censorship director Byron Price who daily advised press and radio on the tough problems of voluntary censorship. In the following story he tells how a free press and radio censors itself.

By JAMES E. WARNER
Office of Censorship
(Written Especially for N. S.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The American press has completed one of the best demonstrations in history that democracy is workable—a free press and radio censored itself during more than 3½ years of war to keep out of print and off the air military information of value to the enemy.

American editors, reporters and broadcasters themselves operated one of the world's tightest censorship systems, with no law on the statute books holding the threat of punitive measures over their heads. A newsman for 20 years, I am proud to have had a part since June 1942 in aiding the American press and radio to administer their voluntary censorship in what Byron Price, director of censorship, called "a bright page in the history of free enterprise."

2000 Dailies

In the United States there are 2,000 daily newspapers, 11,000 weeklies, 900 radio broadcasting stations and thousands of magazines, business news letters, trade papers, house organs, etc. Few people outside the newspaper and radio-business realize what a fiercely competitive profession it is in getting the news first. That such a competitive group, led by the International News Service and the other press services, has pulled together for victory makes me proud I am a newsmen.

Fresh in the mind of everyone, despite the biggest news of centuries which has broken in the past ten days, is the recent stunning announcement that Allied scientists had cracked the atom and used its prodigious power to blast Japan into surrender. Hundreds of press and radio newsmen knew bits and pieces of this world-shaking story.

Yet no one "tipped it over" and it is conceded to have been the best kept secret of the war.

Tight Press

I doubt that the average American realizes just what a tight press and radio censorship was operated in this country during the war just so happily ended. If our citizens will recall, however, the many troop trains, convoys and more recently—Japanese balloons in the western part of the United States they had personal knowledge of, but which they never saw mentioned in print or on the air they will have an inkling of what a great job was done.

The American press and radio, in my opinion, even in wartime has remained the freest, fastest and most efficient news-gathering group in the world.

There was no censorship of criticism or opinion in America—the press could, and did, attack the administration, the Army, the Navy, and the Office of Censorship itself, on occasion—and no one attempted to muzzle it—so long as it did not divulge military information in the process. American editors and broadcasters deserve the utmost credit for successful operation. Mr. Price, one of the best news executives in the world, and those of us who served under him in interpreting and administering the codes of wartime practices which were the censorship rule books, could not have operated for 24 hours without their loyal, patriotic and understanding cooperation.

Rev. C. Pollock Will Speak Sunday

Son Of Congregation Will Preach Sunday Morning At Highland Church

Rev. Clifford Pollock, a former member of Highland U. P. church will be the third visiting minister at Highland church, Highland at Park avenue, during the absence of the pastor, Dr. D. L. Ferguson, while on vacation. Rev. Pollock now serving as the leader of the First Presbyterian church, Morrisville, will preach here Sunday morning, August 19, at 11 o'clock.

While a resident of New Castle, Rev. Pollock was quite active in Y. M. C. A. and young people's work. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Pollock, of the Pulaski road, R. D. 3.

Pfc. T. F. Maricone Wins Bronze Medal

Pfc. Tony F. Maricone, R. D. 1, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for his heroic action on March 4, 1945, in Germany when he used a battered gun to drive eight Germans from their hideout and to set fire to a house, driving out nineteen SS troops and four Hitler Jugend, and enabling the capture of enemy equipment.

Pfc. Maricone's citation which was sent by a friend of his from Massachusetts, Germany, reports that the action occurred when his motorized patrol became engaged in a fire fight in a gully. The local man had no field of fire for his machine gun, and while he was trying to reach the top of a hill two bullets pierced the water jacket of his gun. Using a shell hole as an emplacement, he put the battered gun into action and continued to fight. He was serving with the 395th Infantry.

Use lemon for a pepper-upper for vegetable plate dinners. Use it both to add flavor and as a garnish. An appetizing vegetable plate can be made of lima beans, corn on the cob, baked squash stuffed with ground meat, and spinach garnished with lemon. Feed tea or a cold glass of lemonade tops off this meal.

Wreck Victims Doing Nicely

Kyle Leaves Hospital Last Night; Wreckage Cleared Up Late This Morning

It was stated at the Jameson Memorial hospital this morning that Engineer William J. Heuck and Fireman Claire D. Gaiser, who were slightly scalded in the wreck on the B. and O. railroad just this side of Lowellville, O. Thursday morning, are getting along nicely and that their condition is good. Robert H. Kyle, head brakeman, was able to return to his home last night.

Terminal Transportation Charles Richards stated that the damage caused by the wreck had been repaired at noon today and that traffic was again operating over the B. and O. lines east and west.

A great many sight-seers visited the scene of the wreck late yesterday.

NOT PRIVATE FIGHT

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 17.—(INS)—Order was received in this famous old fighting city today after the National Guard had been called out to quell a victory celebration riot.

The riot started, police said, when members of a Navy Shore Patrol attempted to arrest a soldier. The crowd fought with the sailors until finally the National Guard was summoned by Mayor Arthur N. Harpman. The guardsmen stopped the fighting but were forced to use the butts of their rifles on some of the demonstrators. No one suffered serious injury. Several arrests were made but no formal charges were passed immediately.

Japs Will Always Recall Lexington

Aircraft Carrier More Than Settles Score With Japs For Sinking Predecessor

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The aircraft carrier Lexington today had settled her score with the Japs for sinking her predecessor in the battle of Coral sea.

The 27,000-ton Essex class steamed within 68 miles of Tokyo on one occasion, the navy recalled, and for 17 months averaged a full size strike every six days. It participated in virtually every major carrier action of the war.

Has Great Record
Air groups from the Lexington destroyed 372 enemy planes in the air and 475 on the ground, sunk or destroyed over 300,000 tons of Japanese shipping and damaged nearly 600,000 additional tons.

The carrier's anti-aircraft guns shot down 15 enemy planes and are credited with assists on five others. Hit twice by the enemy throughout her combat operations, the Lexington lost nine men when struck by an aerial torpedo on Dec. 4, 1943, in the Marshall Islands.

Off Luzon on Nov. 3, 1944, a Japanese plane crashed into the Lexington inflicting minor damage.

Man Leaps To His Death 1,000 Feet

Unidentified Man Leaps From 86th Floor Tower Of Empire State Building

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(INS)—An unidentified, red-haired man of about 35, plunging 1,000 feet to his death Thursday from the 86th floor observation tower of the Empire State building.

The leap was probably the highest in the city's history. Several thousand persons, observing the second day of the V-J holiday, witnessed the leap.

About 60 persons were on the observation platform when the man suddenly boosted himself onto the four-foot high retaining wall, built to forestall suicides, and then hurried down.

Word has been received by Mrs. Ann Johnson of Oak street that her son, Bob Johnson, has been promoted from sergeant to staff sergeant. He is attached to general headquarters in Manila, Philippines. Bob has been in the armed forces for three years and overseas 20 months.

Edward W. Sel, 604 Spruce street, has been promoted to the rank of corporal at the field artillery school at Fort Sill, Okla., where he is stationed with the 628th Reconn. FA battalion. Cpl. Sel is the son of

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sel, RD 3, New Castle.

T-Sgt. William T. Brown, New Castle, soldier, has arrived in Charleston, S. C., aboard the troopship "Elfrida." Gerry, who brought 750 American veterans from Antwerp, Belgium.

Robert L. M. Quiston, 34 S. 2-C of Moody avenue, served aboard the USS Texas during 50 consecutive days of the Okinawa campaign, the Fleet News Center in Chicago reports. Throughout the bombardment, few men on the vessel slept more than four hours out of 24.

Patrick Henry, the patriot, read law for only six weeks before he applied for his license to practice. The license was granted, however, on the condition that he study further before practicing.

'Love Treatments' Backfire, Doctor Given Jail Term

Amorous California Doctor Given 90 Days In Jail, Wife Of Soldier Involved

GLENDAL, Cal., Aug. 17.—(INS.)—Dr. Wendell W. White, Glendale physician, today began serving a 90-day jail term for prescribing and attempting to administer "love treatments" to the wife of an overseas soldier.

In addition, he must submit to a mental examination and was barred from practicing medicine in Glendale for a year.

Sentence was imposed in police court after Dr. White, 35, pleaded guilty to assault and battery. The physician was arrested last July 21 on the complaint of Mrs. Signe Leonard, 32.

She said she went to his office for a general physical check-up and was told that the only thing wrong with her was that she was in need of "love treatments."

She said that he proposed that she start the "treatments" immediately and that he slapped and kicked her when she resisted his advances.

Bumping Of Cars Causes Argument

Mayor Hears Case In Which Simpson Was Knocked Down, Then Discharges Sailor

Mayor John F. Haven today released from custody a local sailor who was taken into custody for questioning yesterday in connection with an alleged assault upon Ralph Simpson of Pulaski Tuesday night, in East Washington street at Mill street.

The trouble developed after a car in which Simpson was an occupant had struck and damaged a car then bumped several times into the car driven by the sailor. In a resultant argument Simpson was knocked unconscious, taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital but was discharged.

Mayor Haven told the driver of the car in which Simpson was riding that he judged his driving was not as it should have been and as he too had entered into an argument with the sailor, who had another sailor and soldier as a witness, he was not driving as he should have been.

The mayor discharged the sailor and service police said they were satisfied and that the case was ended insofar as the city and service police were concerned.

Simpson served in the merchant marines until recently.

Children Back From Salvation Army Camp Show Gain In Weight

Thirty-five youngsters sent to the local Salvation Army to camps at Corn Planter and Westview, Pa., have returned home with deep coats of tan and an average gain in weight of three pounds per child, according to Captain Thelma Dugan.

Nine children went to Camp Corn Planter near Kinzua, Pa., for Salvation Army training, while twenty-eight youngsters, who would not have had vacations otherwise, were sent to Westview Fresh Air camp. From Westview, the children made several trips into Pittsburgh to see the planetarium, "the place where the moon was."

All Salvation Army officers of the Western Pennsylvania division will meet for a two day retreat at Camp Ellwood, just outside of Ellwood City, on September 11 and 12. The group will discuss the post-war program of the Salvation Army, Captain Dugan said.

The children were brought back from camp by board members John Shaw, Jack Dunlap, and Charles Wietz of Bessemer.

No Sugar Increase Is Expected Now

Answering local inquiries about the possibility of increased allotments of eating sugar now that the war is over, the New Castle rationing board reports that it has received no information that more sugar will be available, and that it doesn't expect any.

"Men are still overseas and sugar is still needed for war relief abroad," a member of the staff commented. "The war may be over but the results of the war are still here."

Local Nurses Get Promotion

Navy Nurses Dorothy Cingman And Jean Tinsley Now Are Lieutenants (J.G.)

Word has been received here that two local Navy nurses, Ensigns Dorothy Cingman and Jean Tinsley, stationed at the U. S. Naval Dispensary, Miami Beach, Fla., have been promoted to rank of lieutenant junior grade.

Lieutenants Cingman and Tinsley have been in the U. S. Navy service for 18 months. They received their promotions on August 1.

The Navy nurses both are graduates of the New Castle hospital. Lieutenant Cingman, former assistant supervisor of the obstetrics department, New Castle hospital, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cingman, 1008 Wilmington avenue.

Lieutenant Tinsley, former assistant supervisor of the third floor, New Castle hospital, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Tinsley, South Mill street.

The two local nurses are doing a splendid job in the service, and were among the many to answer the call to "do their part during the war."

Need Interpreter At Air Conference

International Civil Air Conference At Montreal Stymied By French Language

MONTREAL, Aug. 17.—(INS.)—The International Civil Aviation Conference was slightly stymied today for lack of interpreters.

Only one interpreter is on duty and he had quite a bit of trouble yesterday in interpreting the speech of Henri Bouche, French delegate to the representatives of the other 13 nations.

Philip A. Cuny, chairman of the Canadian committee which made plans for the Montreal meeting, pointed out that the interpretation trouble emphasizes two developments arising out of plans for world wide cooperation among nations.

First, he said, language differences will remain a barrier for a long time to complete understanding among representatives of different nations.

Second, there are so many international conferences of one kind and another going on all over the world that the supply of expert linguists is practically exhausted.

HARVEST CLOVER AND ALFALFA SEED

Clover seed is scarce and high in price, and where the second crop is not urgently needed for hay no opportunity to harvest seed should be neglected.

Plenty of bumble bees or honey bees working on clover are an indication that pollination will be good. As the heads start to die the set of seed can be judged by the feel of the head. Full heads feel solid and firm.

For the best hay, clover should be cut about the full bloom stage, but by leaving at least a part of the crop until the heads are mature it can be threshed in the barn for seed. What is left can still be used for feed for the less exacting classes of livestock, such as beef cattle and young animals.

Alfalfa seed also is high in price and scarce. If the second crop blooms freely, and if the bees work on it, the hardy strains, such as Brimm, may make a good crop of seed, as they did last year. Alfalfa seed can be readily combined and will be worth harvesting.

NON-METALLIC CABLE NEEDED IN BARN WIRING

Non-metallic electric cable should be used for all farm wiring, particularly in barns and other high buildings to avert the hazard of lightning. Armored cable, or wires in conduit, constitute a hazard around the farms.

Many farmers who are installing new electrical equipment are permitting electricians to connect motors with armored cable and wires in metal conduit. This introduces the hazard from lightning. In addition to averting possible short circuits from lightning bolts, non-metallic electric cable also is far more durable in damp locations such as stables and storage cellars. Copies of Circular 215, "Electric Wiring for the Farm," are available at the Agricultural Extension Office, No. 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

MISERLY PINCH OF SODA

The long-familiar ban against the use of baking soda in cooking green vegetables is due for some easing, as a result of recent research on vegetables cooked at the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Utah State Experiment Station.

Soda can shorten the cooking time of green peas about half without loss of vitamins, if only a "very little bit" is used, tests at the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture indicated. By "a very little bit," the scientists mean about one-sixteenth of a teaspoon of soda—a miserly pinch at the tip of the spoon—added to the cooking water with a pound and a half of peas.

That soda helps hold the bright color of the green vegetables has long been known, but its use has been discouraged because the quantity which most cooks call "a pinch" is large enough to cause considerable loss of vitamin B-1 and C while the pot boils. Too much soda also gives an unpleasant flavor and may make the vegetables mushy.

The tiny bit of baking soda now recommended speeds the softening of the fiber in the vegetable. In tests at the Department of Agriculture, peas, which ordinarily take from 10 to 20 minutes to cook, depending on their natural tenderness, cooked in 7 to 9 minutes when this minute quantity of soda was added.

Whether or not soda is added, Department of Agriculture scientists recommend starting green peas in just enough briskly boiling water to cover them. Salt may be added at the start or end of cooking; it makes little difference in food value, though salting at the start helps to get the seasoning through the peas.

Cooking peas with the lid on is advised. Vegetables cook faster when covered, so there is less time for vitamins and minerals to dissolve into the cooking water, and less destruction of the vitamins by heat. Speedy cooking also helps hold the original green color of the vegetable and cuts fuel costs.

AMEN BROTHER AMEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Sen. Tom Stewart (D-Tenn.), member of the senate small business committee, Thursday proposed a prompt tax cut as a means of encouraging small business.

Stewart also proposed early repeal of the $5 auto stamp tax, which he described as "a nuisance tax."

"We have got to reduce taxes to enable the small business man to reconvert and to get re-established in business," he declared.

Pfc. Charles Drake Calls From England

For the first time in three years, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Drake of 408 East Meyer avenue heard the voice of their son, Pfc. Charles F. Drake, when he called from Tedworth, England, on Sunday at 5:25 a. m. EWT.

The connection was very clear for the six-minute conversation. Pfc. Drake, who served as a member of an anti-aircraft crew with the seventh and fifth armies thru the invasion of Africa, and later in Sicily, Italy and southern France, is in good health and working in an army library until transportation is available home, he said in the conversation with his parents.

"Tell all my friends hello," he said.

Postwar Farm Prices Discussed By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1945, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

BABSON PARK, Mass., Aug. 17.—I have just been reading a book written for farmers by Samuel Babson who was born in Ross county, Ohio, in 1832. It is "Benner's Prices" and was first published in 1875 by the Robert Clark company of Cincinnati. His forecasts were based largely on the prices of wheat, iron and pork. He was the first business statistician to make forecasts from charts. His charts dated from 1819 until his death in 1881. A free summary of his work has been distributed by the Van Camp Hardware & Iron company of Indianapolis.

Benner's Mistake
Although farmers owe much to Samuel Babson, he nevertheless made one basic mistake. In fact, if he had not, his books today would be selling as the works of Eltingham Wilson of London who sold Benner's publications in England. This mistake of Mr. Babson was that he charted only prices and did not give sufficient attention to the volume. He should have charted the product of the price and the volume. This is what farmers should do today, rather than be misled by Benner's theory.

For instance, 1,000,000 bushels of wheat selling at one dollar a bushel has the same potent effect as 500,000 bushels selling at two dollars per bushel. The same principle applies to all commodities and to business as a whole. It is the basis of the Babsonchart, a copy of which I will gladly send to any reader without charge. This is based upon a combination of the studies of Sir Isaac Newton and Eltingham Wilson.

Government Interference
Until 1914 there existed truly free markets—and excepting in a few commodities which temporarily were cornered by big speculators—there had been no interference with prices. Since 1914, and especially since 1940, the artificial regulation of prices and production has raised the interference a good deal like damming a stream of water. You can temporarily slow-up the flow, but you do not destroy the water. Sooner or later this water must go over the dam. It is on this assumption that he Babsonchart is based. Not only is the U. S. buying huge quantities of farm products, but the farmers are getting government bounties which upset forecasting. However, the atomic bomb is bringing the Japanese war to a speedy end, the next few years will see a lot of trouble for one crop farmer.

Twenty-five years ago the peak in World War I prices was reached. In May, 1920, prices received by farmers averaged 235 per cent of 1910-14. Just a year later the price index was down to 115. In May, 1945, the price index was 200. This means that farm prices more than doubled in each world war period. The total farm cash income was nearly five times as large in 1944 as in 1932—in fact, in 1944 it was nearly double the prosperous year of 1929. Recently there has been a leveling off. Farmers cash income for the first six months of 1945 was nearly 40 million dollars above the same period last year, including government payments.

Postwar Outlook
When I tell farmers that a big slump in farm prices will come during the next few years, they reply by reciting their increases in costs—higher wages, higher taxes and higher everything from implements to fertilizer. In the long run, the cost of a product determines the selling price, but there is always a slump before prices are adjusted to costs. For a few years following World War II, only little attention will be given to farmers' costs, notwithstanding the wage tables which should have charted a wise course.

The wise farmer will today not over-expand or buy more land. He will first get out of debt; secondly, he will buy agricultural implements and make repairs to reduce his postwar costs; and thirdly, he will save money, through buying government bonds and accumulating a good bank account for the troublesome years which are ahead.

Special Note: The above message to farmers is all the more important now that Japan has surrendered. Do not be so jubilant about getting your boys home that they will find a farm burdened with debt or a father who has failed to recognize and prepare for the slump in certain agricultural prices which is bound to follow.

The entrance of Russia into the war and the surrender of Japan do not change my opinion on the investment outlook. I am still bullish on most common stocks, with the exception of shipping, airplane and munitions. I am still bearish on the railroads and believe they will suffer with the one crop farmers.

INCONSIDERATE, WERE THEY NOT?

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17.—Locusts caused so much noise during the dedication of a Civil War monument at Harrisburg in 1868 that the audience was unable to hear the speakers, according to a record unearthed by Nevil W. Moyer.

Families May Send Messages To Men Held By Japanese

Families of men now held in Japanese prison camps may send special messages to those men now, if they go to the local Red Cross chapter on Beaver street today or Saturday, Miss Elizabeth Breslin, executive secretary, announced this morning.

These brief personal letters must be sent on regular forms available at the Red Cross, and must arrive in San Francisco by Monday, August 20. All of the messages will be sent by air mail, special delivery.

One photograph may be attached to each letter, but no documents can be sent. The messages should be of a strictly personal nature, with no mention of financial matters, Miss Breslin said.

No messages will be sent for men missing in action, according to the regulations received by the Red Cross this morning. The American Red Cross will deliver the letters to men stationed north of Hong Kong, while the British, Australian and Netherlands Red Cross will handle the messages for men south of Hong Kong.

END OF WAR HALTS TEACHER SHORTAGE

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 17.—Halting the trend away from teaching positions and into war jobs, the end of the war will mean that the teacher shortage should be no worse this year than last, School Superintendent W. W. Trent believes.

Trent predicted two weeks ago that many counties would be in a worse position this year, but now finds that teachers are already preparing to go back to their old positions.

The only way an amendment to the Constitution of the United States can be repealed is by the adoption of another amendment which nullifies it.

Army Fliers May Earn License By Taking Rules Test

Former Air Corps pilots who are returning to civilian life will be able to receive their private flying licenses by merely passing the Civil Aeronautics rules and regulations test and by showing their record of flying hours, according to Finley Wilson, operator of the New Castle airport.

For the commercial license, fliers will have to pass the CAA flight test, also. About 60 student pilots are now in training at the local airport, and more are expected to take up flying now that the end of gasoline rationing will permit people to drive to the airport more often.

Full-time instructors are on duty at the field, and the ground school classes, which have been discontinued because of the simplification

Future Planes May Be Of Glass

CHICAGO, (INS)—The Air Technical Service Command believes there can be something new under the sun—a glass airplane.

And according to ATSC engineers, fliers can "cast all the stones" they care to, for even high-explosive projectiles can be fired into the glass fiber fuselage of this first successful plastic plane without causing detonation.

Col. Nelson S. Talbott, chief of the Chicago Mid-Central ATSC, said this prototype for future combat and civilian planes is made of such low density material that it will not "flower" under fire.

Constructively speaking, the plastic plane is 50 per cent stronger, yet lighter than metal fabrication. No bolts or rivets appear to mar its external contours.

with a newly developed resin are placed over a mold in building the plastic planes, thus building up laminated sheets into the size, shape and thickness desired.

Later these sheets are transferred to another mold, the assembly is covered with a blanket and sealed, then cured in an oven.

According to Talbott, the first plastic model has been flown for over a year and under all conditions.

A second trainer is being produced now at Wright Field using different assembly techniques, he added.

UNITY BAPTIST WILL CALL PASTOR

Members of the Unity Baptist church will have a congregational meeting Sunday morning, August 19, at 11 o'clock in the church.

This meeting is being called in order that action may be taken in regards to the calling of a minister.

Tricky Piloting Needed For This

Half-Ton Bomb Jammed But Was Ready To Explode, Pilot Gets Back To Ship

By JULIAN HARTT
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD MCCAIN'S FLAGSHIP
Aug. 17.—Now that the shooting is over, it can be disclosed that the biggest thrill and the tensest moment aboard the flagship of Vice Adm. John S. McCain during the 47 days of Japan came from a thousand-pound bomb that wasn't delivered to the Japs.

Lt. Comdr. Ted Hubert of Glendale, Calif., executive officer of a fighter squadron of Corsairs, carried the giant half-ton bomb to Japan as the peace machinery creaked along, then discovered he couldn't release it.

There was nothing alarming in that alone as pilots occasionally bring back bombs when the target is obscured and if in original condition, they are more touchy than a basket of eggs.

Safety Off
But Hubert also noticed in trying to release it by power dives, the safety on the little fuse propeller came loose and the bomb armed itself.

Suddenly he was literally flying a Jap "Baka" bomb and no place to put it. The slightest outward jar and that fuse would blow him and anything anywhere near to you know where.

That was the situation as he came into the landing circle and to the aft end of the flight deck.

The deck was passed by loudspeakers. The deck was virtually empty, runners laid flat in their gun tubs and the decks immediately beneath the flight deck were cleared. The face of hundreds, perhaps the entire ship, was in the hands of two men as Hubert's plane delivered the live thousand-pounder to the flagship flight deck with greater precision than in the wildest dreams of kamikaze suicide pilots.

Those men were Lt. Alan Ortlip, landing signal officer, and Lt. Edmond Jackson of Hamburg, N. Y., bomb disposal officer.

Signal Officer
With perfect skill, Ortlip worked his yellow signal flags and Hubert gently rested his plane onto the deck as he would handle a nervous felly. As the plane stopped rolling, Jackson raced across the deck to it. One glance told him the slightest direct jarring of the fuse would set it off.

With calm, cold skill he applied a screwdriver to forestall the explosion, then walked gingerly forward, holding the screwdriver in place as the plane taxied slowly forward to a point where the fuse could be removed.

Word was then passed around that it was "all clear." Everywhere we got off the decks, peered cautiously over the steel splinter shields which would not have done much good anyhow.

With sighs of relief, we leaned back and resumed the less nerve-racking sport of watching for enemy planes.

The Chinese are believed to have been the earliest of all peoples to solve the chief problems of boat building, and to have first worked out the art of navigation.

Japs Scampering For Bandwagon As War In China Ends

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Tokyo radio revealed today that Japanese puppet leaders in China are trying to scramble aboard the bandwagon of Chinese unity.

An English-language broadcast to Europe, heard by the FCC, quoted Masayuki Tani, Japanese ambassador to Nanking, the puppet government capital, as saying that now "everybody will unite and make every effort to the reconstruction of the country."

The broadcast said Tani quoted "The old Chinese saying: 'When war is over, we should resume the intercourse of true gentlemen.'"

Farmer Is Found Fatally Beaten

FINLEYVILLE, Pa., Aug. 17.—(INS)—State police today were investigating the fatal beating of Paul Posnick, 57, a farmer, whose battered body was found yesterday on the Wilbur Snee farm near Gastonville.

Pvt. John A. Maggioncalda of the State police said Posnick apparently was slugged with a piece of heavy pipe which was found about 200 feet from the body. His skull was fractured.

Maggioncalda said robbery may have been the motive. Posnick, he said, probably was carrying a large sum of money from the sale of a bull. His pockets were empty when he was found.

German Submarine Docks In Argentine

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 17.—(INS)—A German submarine escorted by Argentine ships entered the Mardel Plata Harbor shortly before 11 this morning.

The U-boat was not immediately identified.

WAR ON TABBIES

WALLA WALLA, Wash.—(INS)—Walla Walla police are armed with sawed-off shotguns to protect the city against nocturnal marauders. So many cats have serenaded the city's residents that Chief of Police A. L. Jeffries ordered patrolmen to be ready to shoot the yowling prowlers.

Red Cross Asked To Help Spread Surrender News

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The International Red Cross was asked today to use its facilities in informing Japanese nationals detained "in enemy countries or in countries that have severed relations" with Japan, to take "strict observance" of Emperor Hirohito's surrender rescript.

In a Tokyo radio transmission recorded by the FCC, former Foreign Minister Shigenori Togo asked Max Huber, president of the International Red Cross at headquarters in Bern, Switzerland, to supply detained Japanese nationals with a copy of the emperor's surrender decree as well as his own message urging its observance.

Police Recapture Escaped Prisoner

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 17.—(INS)—Police today recaptured one of four men who saved their way out of Cambria County jail last night.

Jack Knoll, alias Jack Belesky, of Conemaugh, was caught in a Johnstown restaurant. An extensive search was underway for his three companions. They were William Grable, of Chicago, jailed on an assault and battery charge; Albert Fulmer, 37, of Johnstown, murder indictment; and James L. Walker, 21, murder indictment.

All but Fulmer scaled a 23-foot jail yard wall after cutting through the bars in their cell blocks. Fulmer walked through the front door after a scuffle with a guard during which he grabbed the jailhouse keys.

SAW DEPOT IN TWO AND MOVE IT
PORT MOODY, British Columbia —(INS)—Impatient after years of complaints by irritated patrons who had to walk a half mile from the center of the town to the railway station, Canadian Pacific Railway officials recently saw the light. They simply sawed the building in two and mounted it on flatbeds moving it right into downtown Port Moody. Each section of the building, 48 by 65 feet, weighed 70,000 pounds.

Hirohito Becomes 'More Human' As Japan Is Licked

Emperor Leaves Divinity
And Condescends To Take Action In Politics

By JOHN B. LEONARD
(U.S. Foreign Writer)

Defeat of Japan seems to have had a direct and salutary effect on Emperor Hirohito's capacity as a ruler, apart from any allied military control of his activities.

Within a matter of hours after Japan's surrender, Hirohito shattered all precedent in speaking personally over the radio to his subjects and informed them of the unconditional terms of capitulation. Next, he bypassed his advisers among the "senior cabinet members" and appointed a premier-designate to replace Kantaro Suzuki. Thirdly, he took and obeyed orders from General of the Army Douglas MacArthur.

These actions point to the possibility that Hirohito plans to impress upon the Japanese people the fact that divinity is not to be taken too literally in association with the imperial throne.

Smashes Precedent
Hirohito's choice of a premier-designate was Gen. Prince Naruhiko Higashi-Junji, uncle of Empress Nagako, and his appointment was another precedent—it was the first time in Japan's history that a member of the imperial family ever has been ordered to head a government.

There are certain signs—not numerous as yet, but nevertheless evident—that Hirohito is promulgating certain orders in anticipation of allied commands.

For example, the Japanese puppet government of east central China at Nanking was ordered dissolved. There is little doubt that Wang Chingwei, Chinese puppet ruler of the illegal Nanking government, will be turned over by the Japanese to Chinese authorities.

China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek issued a statement yesterday which was notable for its magnanimity. He said that allied rule of Japan should be lenient and understanding. Occidentals—particularly Americans who have lost sons and brothers and fathers in the war with Japan—will find such an attitude difficult to understand and even more difficult to adopt.

But it should be remembered that Chiang Kai-Shek is an oriental, and that the China he leads lost many more times the American number of dead in years of warfare more pitiless than can be imagined.

The allied military ruling of Japan will be fraught with problems. There is no sense in overlooking the possibility that Japan will seek to plot against her conquerors with a view to their destruction.

But if affairs are properly conducted, with sagacity and wisdom, Japan will never have the opportunity in her lifetime to wreak that revenge.

In the final analysis, and looking toward that "eternal peace" of which much has been written, it is to be hoped the Japanese people themselves will relinquish such futile thoughts.

Joseph Clark Grew, 65, left the State Department today after 41 years in its service, but it is probable that he will return to government service in some capacity.

Grew entered the diplomatic service in 1904, only two years after his graduation from Harvard University. He was a "Boston Brahmin," related by blood and marriage to some of the oldest families in America.

He was an upperclassman to the late Franklin Delano Roosevelt at the exclusive preparatory school at Groton, Mass., and at Harvard, where he graduated in 1902 with a bachelor of arts degree.

Grew began his diplomatic service as clerk of the U.S. consulate-general in Cairo. From 1906-1907 he was third secretary to the American ambassador in Mexico City.

His next post was in Russia; he served after that in Germany, Austria, and after a period of special assignments to the State Department, was appointed American ambassador to Turkey from 1927 until 1932.

In 1932 he was assigned as U.S. envoy to Japan and remained in that important post until the outbreak of war.

He many times warned the Japanese that war with the United States would bring national disaster for the ambitious empire. He was said to believe the tranquility of Japan could be assured after its defeat by retaining the emperor.

Pfc. Deirfield To Undergo Operation

Hillville Soldier, Wounded By Shrapnel, Now At Atlantic City Hospital

After spending 24 days furlough visiting with his family Pfc. Howard R. Deirfield of Hillville, has returned to the Thomas England General Hospital, Atlantic City, N. J., where he will undergo another operation.

Pfc. Deirfield sustained shrapnel wounds in action, and was hospitalized for several months before being returned to the United States. While here he also visited with his mother, Mrs. Della Lancaster, and his brothers and sisters of this city.

Complete Probe Of Bomber Crash

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The crash of an army bomber into the Empire State building on July 28 was attributed by the War Department "To unfavorable flying conditions and to misjudgment on the part of the pilot and ground personnel."

The announcement was made by the War Department upon completion of the investigation into the unusual accident, which damaged the world's tallest building and killed the crew members of the twin-engine B-25 army bomber.

Junior Red Cross Has Full Program For Coming Year

Miss Breslin Announces Full Schedule Of Work For Youngsters Of Junior Red Cross

Junior Red Cross, which has been contributing its own special work and gifts to the servicemen and to the war-stricken children of the world, will continue its work this fall, according to Miss Elizabeth Breslin, executive secretary of the local Red Cross chapter.

Gift boxes will still be filled for unfortunate children; gay menu covers and games will be made for wounded servicemen; and favors will probably be made for local hospitals.

Approximately 12,511 pupils took part in the Junior Red Cross work last year, representing 70 schools in this district, Miss Breslin said. Their work included a $75 donation to the National Children's Fund; 282 educational gift boxes; 683 navy menu covers; 390 army menu covers for Desion hospital; 450 gift boxes; stuffed toys for blind children;

games, toys, and miscellaneous items for the Margaret Henry Children's Home; tray favors for hospitals on Christmas and Easter; cartoon books and puzzles for Deason hospital; and box of milkweed for the milkweed collection.

Articles sent to area headquarters for wounded soldiers included such things as 125 cartoon books, 376 decks of playing cards and games, 35 coat hangers, 34 convalescent slippers, and 77 pocket novels.

The youngsters will continue their work under their own committee, with Miss Emma Maxwell and Dr. John Meehan as co-chairmen. Miss Maxwell has returned from a five-day seminar for Junior Red Cross directors at Penn State.

The bullet-riddled body of Charles Randall, 37-year-old Harveys Lake boat concessionaire, was found face down on a dirt road five miles from the main road between Tunkhannock and Wilkes-Barre. His car was nearby.

Mrs. Randall, mother of two children was freed under $11,000 bond while Ferrell was held without bail.

The defendants, who were indicted by a grand jury June 18 after a little more than one hour of consideration, will be tried separately.

Mrs. Randall was charged with murder, with compounding a felony and with being an accessory after the fact while Ferrell was accused of murder.

Correspondent Says Civil War Looms

LONDON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Reuters' correspondent Graham Barrow in Chungking reported Thursday that the threat of civil war in China has assumed serious proportions.

Barrow, quoting what he termed the most reliable sources, said that clashes already had taken place.

The newsman reported that Chinese Communists allegedly were doing their utmost to exploit the present situation and obstruct Chiang Kai-Shek's arrangements to accept Japanese surrender.

Quell Disturbances In Buenos Aires

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Mounted police resorted to tear gas Thursday to clear the streets, following fresh disturbances in which two persons were killed and at least 20 wounded.

Throughout yesterday crowds paraded the capital's streets carrying banners and shouting "down with Peron." Vice President Juan Domingo Peron, considered the real power behind President Ezequiel Farrell, is a candidate for the presidency.

A good method of keeping paint off the glass when windows are being painted is to use squares of newspaper the size of the window pane. Mount the paper so that it will stick to the glass, then any paint that splatters will go on the paper instead of the glass. The most paper may easily be removed.

Local Brakeman Injured Thursday

James Miller Severely Bruised As
His Engine Was Sideswiped
By Another

James Miller, of 310 North Cedar street, who is confined to the New Castle hospital, is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. Miller, who is a brakeman on the B. & O. railroad, sustained severe body bruises Thursday morning at about 4 o'clock while on the engine tank of his train coming into the yard from Willard, O. With the weather quite foggy his engine was sideswiped by another engine at which time Mr. Miller sustained the injuries and was taken to the hospital. When the accident happened, Mr. Miller had but a few more minutes to complete his run.

W.A.G.'s Picnic At Cascade Park

On Thursday evening, members of the W. A. G. club assembled at Cascade Park for their annual picnic, when their families were guests.

A basket picnic dinner was served in the grove at six o'clock. The committee of arrangements was Mrs. George Kutz and Mrs. Ralph Scowden.

After the dinner there was reminiscing, and the group enjoyed the park amusements.

The next meeting of the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. George Kutz of West Madison avenue.

Lucky Stars Plan Picnic At Cascade

Members of the Lucky Stars Club gathered on Wednesday evening at a local tea room and enjoyed a dinner party.

Following the dinner the group attended a theatre party.

On August 22 the club will have a picnic at Cascade Park, with Mrs. Jennie Trepicone as hostess. If weather is unfavorable the members will meet at the hostess residence.

Seamen From Ward Meet In Pacific

Word has been received that Kenneth Moss, Radioman 3-C and Allen Brettell, Petty Officer 1-C recently met somewhere in the Pacific, and enjoyed a long chat; the boys had not met for about three years. The former is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moss of West Clayton street, and the latter a son of Capt. Colonel J. B. Brettell of East Madison avenue.

GREET SOLDIERS ON TROOP TRAIN

Observing a very large troop train moving west slowly through the ward about three o'clock, folks approached within a short distance to exchange greetings with the soldiers aboard. A number of the coaches had various inscriptions on them, one was "Sixth Armored, Patton's Pride." Sgt. Joe Santora of the ward, recently returned from overseas is reported as a member of that unit.

On the places of Augustine Russo and William Lambiasi of South Cedar street, the fig trees are doing well this year. The figs are quite a number of green figs just now, which are expected to be ripe in September. Much protection is given by the owners to these trees before winter approaches to carry them through the inclement weather.

DOWN WITH WEEDS!

There is a strong crop of weeds growing on the lot at the corner of East Clayton and North Cedar streets. It is believed that cutting down and burning these weeds would be a worth while chore accomplished.

AT CITY UNION SERVICE

On Sunday evening, Rev. Lynn Matlack, of Madison avenue Christian church will preach at the Union service in the city, on the lawn of the First Christian church, commencing at 7 o'clock.

CRUSADERS MEET TONIGHT

This evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Wilkins, members of the Crusaders Bible School class of the Madison avenue Christian church will assemble at 8:00 o'clock.

SOLDIER HUSBAND HOME SOON

Mrs. Josephine Mangino, of South Ashland avenue, has received a phone call from her husband Albert, now in South Carolina, stating that he expected to be home soon. He recently returned from service in Europe.

ARRIVES FROM OVERSEAS

From Indianatown, Gap Military Reservation comes word that Cpl. Joseph A. Chlebowski of R. D. 7, Mahoningtown, arrived at that station from overseas for redeployment.

BROTHERS RECEIVE NOTICE OF DEATH OF JOHN M. QUEHL

John M. Quehl, formerly restaurant owner here in New Castle, died in his home in Jacksonville, Florida, on Wednesday after a long illness, according to word received by his brothers, Joseph and Lawrence Quehl of 417 Court street, and Albert Quehl of South Walnut street.

When in New Castle, Mr. Quehl operated a restaurant on South Mercer street, but has been out of the city for thirty years. Besides his brothers, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Eva Sankard of Olean, N. Y., and Mrs. Helen Waldron of Detroit. Funeral services are being held this afternoon in Jacksonville.

Post-War Troubles Loom For Chinese

By JOHN B. LEONARD

INS Foreign Writer

Or all nations beset by war during the last ten or more tragic years China must be named as the nation whose postwar troubles are most fundamental, complicated and vital.

As part from her postwar attitude toward Japan and whether she approves of the pro-tem cabinet chosen to govern under Allied military rule, China also faces—and immediately—the problem of a serious fissure between Chiang Kai-Shek's government and the strong Chinese Communist leadership.

Want Proof

The Kremlin in Moscow has gone on record with a declaration that Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin regards China's problem as a purely domestic matter for China's own settlement. Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek has said she and her generalissimo husband propose to give Stalin every opportunity to prove the sincerity of his statement.

Now comes Gen. Chu Teh, commander-in-chief of the Chinese Communist armies, who sent a memorandum to the American, Russian and British ambassadors in Chungking.

Chu Teh demanded that his Yenian government be represented at the Allied acceptance of the common enemy's surrender.

He also demanded that the United States cease at once the further shipment of lend-lease goods to the Kuomintang government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The latter demand was based on Chu Teh's allegation that continuation of lend-lease supply to Chiang Kai-Shek was increasing "the danger of civil war."

The Yenian Communist government thus anticipates the issue and assumes the prerogative of prematurely fixing the blame—and undertakes these actions when China actually is not at war within itself.

Civil War
 A civil war in China, were it to occur at this time or at any time in the near future, might easily do to that troubled nation what Japanese aggression over a period of years was unable to achieve.

Chiang Kai-Shek has publicly invited Mao Tze-Tung, head of the Yenian regime, to visit Chungking and enter into conference aimed at settling this disturbing dispute.

If it is true, as Gen. Chu Teh claims, that the Communist armies engaged 69 per cent of the Japanese forces in China, plus 95 per cent of Japan's puppet troops, then serious consideration must be given to the ultimate disposition of vast stores of Japanese arms and ammunition which presumably were captured by Chu Teh's armies in their numerous battles.

The domestic affairs of any one of the United Nations are its own business but the prevention of war is something in which the Allies have expressed the keenest interest.

Whether a civil war could be termed "a war of aggression" is something else again. But can it not be held that any war jeopardizing the safety and well-being of a civilized people is, in a sense, an aggressive war?

Heartening News For Unemployed

President Of National Manufacturers Paints Picture For Future

NEW YORK, Aug. 17—(INS)—Ira Mosher, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, gave a heartening boost today to war workers threatened with unemployment.

"Even at that period of reconversion when the most people are out of work," said Mosher, "employment in manufacturing will not drop below 1929."

Mosher said he based his forecast on a NAM survey of 1700 of the 13,000 member companies of his organization, as well as on department reports, which predicted that 7000 industries would spend nine billion dollars for new plants and improvements.

Mosher said that war workers need not be out of work any longer than 30 days, or the time needed to change from war work to new civilian industry.

AROUND CITY HALL

Commencing the first of this fiscal year garbage department employees receive pay on the basis of tonnage collection and according to City Controller W. A. Moore's statistics the cost of collection is approximately $500 less each month. Mr. Moore also reported that golf receipts to the end of July were ahead of the same period of 1944. The gain was about $300. However, receipts at the Cascade Park pool have not reached the level up to July 31, because of cooler weather than for the same period in 1944.

Director of Street James Gibson reported Friday that following a view held by council Thursday, it has been decided to remove several trees situated along State street hill which will be dangerous after excavation for widening of the street has been completed.

With more gas and everyone who owns an auto taking it out either for a day or night spin, Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna reported today that drivers should exercise caution. "Many cars are not in pre-war condition. Accidents are likely to occur, hence drive so you can stop quickly," he warned.

Bougainville Japs Still Aggressive

"Defeated But Still Defiant", Australian Minister Calwell Says

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17—(INS)—Melbourne radio reported today that Japanese forces on Bougainville are "still showing aggression" and quoted Australian Minister of Information Arthur Calwell as asserting "Japan has been defeated but is still defiant."

One Melbourne broadcast, recorded by the FCC, said that Australian army headquarters has received news of surrender by Japanese forces on Bougainville, New Guinea, New Britain or on Borneo.

Calwell declared Japan "will move south again at some future date unless Australia is strong enough and peopled by a population big enough to deter her."

"The Japanese," he pointed out, "are eighty millions strong and we are seven millions. It is numbers that count."

The Melbourne radio declared that Calwell had "fully endorsed" recent Australian radio warnings that Emperor Hirohito's speech to the Japanese people was "the speech of a defiant nation and constituted 'the first threat to peace in the Pacific.'"

An earlier broadcast stressed delay in compliance by Japanese troops in the South Pacific with Hirohito's cease fire order.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Sends Message Of Victory To Jap Conqueror

MANILA, Aug. 17—(INS)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme commander of all occupation forces in Japan, today received the following congratulatory message from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower:

"United States forces in Europe rejoice with you as the task that began in those days of December, 1941, reaches its glorious conclusion."

"We join with all other freedom-loving people," Eisenhower said, "to express our admiration for your brilliant leadership and our veneration for the valor of the men you have led to victory."

PROBE FIRE CAUSE

DUNCANNON, Pa. Aug. 17—(INS)—Firemen were investigating today the cause of a fire which razed a mansion at nearby New Buffalo belonging to the Aldon Products company at Duncannon.

The blaze was discovered last night by a passing truck driver and summoned fire companies from three communities.

SPECIAL SESSION UNLIKELY

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17—(INS)—The possibility of calling a special session of the General Assembly was skirted today by Gov. Edward Martin.

He merely said there would be an extraordinary meeting "to appropriate specific funds for the new war program" and pointed out that the assembly had adopted sufficient legislation during the past session.

DENVER, Aug. 17—(INS)—Mayor Beane today said that if it may have been a case of stamp collectors, but that Denver police today were frankly puzzled over a reported burglary. An unknown thief broke into a filling station. The lost gasoline coupons for 60 gallons.

LIMIT STILL ON

HARRISBURG, Aug. 17—(INS)—Motorists were reminded today by Gov. Edward Martin that the 35-miles-an-hour speed limit had not been rescinded.

Motorists should be careful when the 35-mile limit is lifted by the federal government because tires are thin and automobiles are worn out, he declared. The governor did not indicate when the speed limit would be ended.

Japanese Fire On B-32 Bomber

B-32's On Photo Flight Over Tokyo Jumped By Jap Fighters And AA Barrage

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Robert Shaplen, NBC and Newsweek correspondent reported from Manila today that one of the newest type bombers, a B-32, was badly shot up during a routine photo reconnaissance flight over Tokyo at noon today (Manila time).

Shaplen said a flight of four of the new type bombers were attacked by eight or ten Japanese fighters and were driven into the middle of a terrific anti-aircraft barrage.

One Badly Hit
One of the planes flying at 20,000 feet was badly hit on the wing flaps and tail by about 50 ack ack bursts, and it returned to the Philippines full of holes.

Pilots told Shaplen they were greatly surprised when attacked by the Jap fighters. They added, however, that the fighters were not "too" aggressive.

The B-32 gunners said they shot down two of the Jap fighters.

Japanese Troops On Bougainville Still Aggressive

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—(INS)—The Melbourne radio said today that Japanese forces on Bougainville are "still showing aggression."

The broadcast, as heard by the American Broadcasting Co., said that Australian army headquarters have received "no news of surrender by Japanese forces on Bougainville, New Guinea, New Britain or Borneo."

Australian forces on Bougainville heard explosions in Japanese sectors yesterday, the broadcast said, possibly indicating the Japanese were destroying munitions. The Japanese troops were also seen throwing supplies into the water, the Melbourne radio said.

"The imperial troops have failed to heed Australian orders to send envoys as demanded by Australian commanders," the radio report added. "The possibility of force being used to make the Japanese lay down arms has been suggested."

Aviators Capture Twenty-One Japs

Japs Run Up White Flag, Flies Go Down Low, Arrange For Surrender

MANILA, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Two Yank airmen today received credit for "capturing" 21 Jap troops from an airplane.

The flyers, Lt. Kenneth C. Palmer, Plattville, Wis., and Corp. Richard Klein, Minneapolis, Minn., were in a Cub observation plane over central Luzon when they spied a group of Japs waving white flags.

Flying low, and with motors cut so they could shout from the plane, they gave instructions to the Japs to drop their arms.

Then they flew back and called Doushboys who came forward and completed the capture.

The emancipated Japs were happy to learn from their captors that their emperor had ordered them to surrender.

Four Sailors Are Killed In Crash

Four, Sailors, From Bainbridge Training Station Meet Death, Two Women Injured

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 17.—(INS)—Four sailors from Bainbridge naval station returning from victory day leave were killed today and two women seriously injured in an automobile-trailer truck collision at Perryville, Md.

Names of the sailors were announced by the navy pending notification of next of kin.

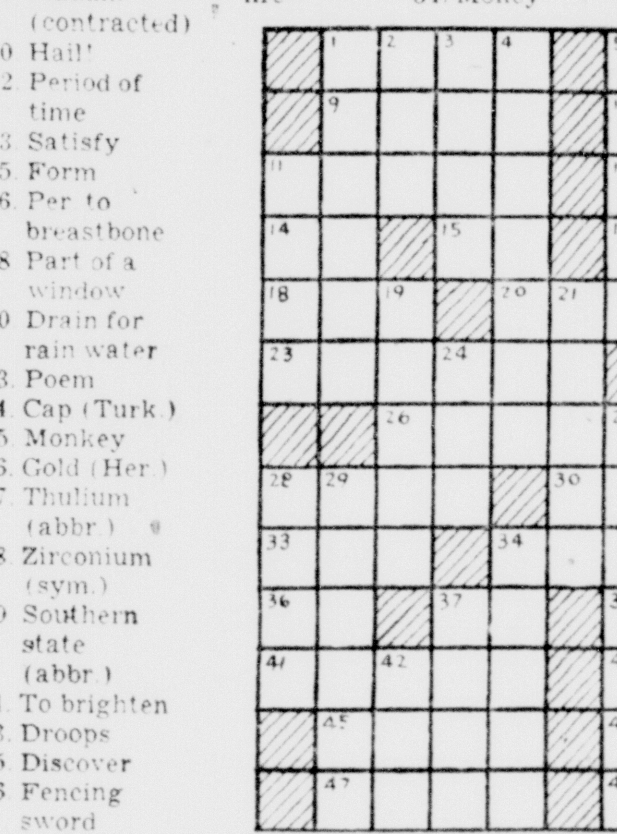

Injured were Miss Margaret Hueschling, 24, Ardley, Pa., and Mrs. George Lloyd, Wilmington, Del.

Police said the sailors were passengers in the car driven by Miss Hueschling. Miss Lloyd, police declared, was riding in the trailer truck which was driven by her husband.

Moose-Ellwood Ready To Open Series Sunday

Moose Defeat Wampum 9 To 1 Thursday, Cinch Second-Half Championship

LAWRENCE COUNTY LEAGUE FINISHED

The 1945 Lawrence county baseball league season came to an end last night when the Moose Club defeated Wampum 9 to 1 to become the second half champions, and earned the right to battle Ellwood City for the championship starting Sunday at Ellwood's Ewing Park field at 3 o'clock. The series will be the best out of five.

The second game of the series will be at Marshall field Tuesday at 6 o'clock. The third game at Ellwood next Thursday with the teams coming back to Marshall field Sunday, August 26 if a fourth game is necessary.

Very Successful Season
The Lawrence County League received this year, ended a most successful season in which not one protest was registered. The teams were all evenly divided in playing material. The league started the season with four teams: Ellwood, Moose Club, Wampum and Ewingburg, and at the end of the first half added two more fine teams, American Legion All-Stars and Hillsville, making a fast six-team circuit. The Moose won the second-half with 11 wins and three defeats.

The Moose having won last night will cancel all postponed games being postponed as the Moose could not be topped or tied. However the Legion All-Stars will play the Wampum team in an exhibition game at Marshall field Sunday, Earl Moffatt announced.

Tommy Harmon To Play At Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Tommy Harmon, who made football history at the University of Michigan, is expected to join the collective all-stars within a day or two for the football game against the champion Green Bay Packers Aug. 30 on Soldier field.

He was mustered out as captain in the American air force earlier this week at San Pedro, Calif., and headed at once for Chicago to fulfill his ambition of playing a second time in the annual all-star game.

Greco-Janiro Fight Tonight

Montreal Welterweight Favored To Defeat Youngstown Scrapper Again Tonight

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Johnny Greco, Montreal welterweight, stands slight favorite to down Tony Janiro of Youngstown, O., in the feature bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The bout has been held to eight rounds because of Janiro's age, which is given as 19, although many close friends say he has just turned 18. New York State law requires a fighter to be over 20 before he goes more than eight.

Greco, who won the Philadelphia Golden Gloves in 1934, is expected to weigh in at 144, as opposed to 143 for his young opponent.

The fight is expected to draw a capacity crowd of 18,000 and produce an $80,000 gate.

Holmes Slams Three Homers Against Reds

Despite Terrific Hitting By Tommy Holmes Braves Lose Two To Cincinnati

NEW YORK NUDGES PITTSBURGH CLUB

BY LES CONKLIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—When the National League's most valuable player for 1945 is chosen, plenty of votes will be cast for Tommy Holmes, versatile outfielder of the Boston Braves, even though that club is not a pennant contender.

After setting a new modern National League record earlier in the season for hitting safely in consecutive games, Sir Thomas now is leading the league in home runs, batting runs scored, hits and doubles. And after socking five home runs in the past two days, he is not too far away from the lead in runs batted in.

Holmes Hits Three
Holmes hit three homers against Cincinnati yesterday, but the Reds nevertheless ended their 13-game losing streak with a vengeance by beating the Braves twice, 5 to 3 and 8 to 3. With a total of 23, Holmes now leads the circuit clouters of both leagues by a wide margin.

Chicago's lead over St. Louis was cut to five games when Tom Seaver, stocky Brooklyn southpaw, pitched and batted his way to a 2 to 1 victory over Hank Wyse, 18-game winner of the Cubs.

The Cardinals, getting nice pitching these days, served notice that they are still in the pennant race when Ken Burkhardt held the Phillies to two singles and blanked them 4 to 0.

Giants Nudge Pirates
Manager Mel Ott of the New York Giants hit his 17th homer for the first run off Preacher Roe in 22 2-3 innings as the Giants nipped the Pirates, 2 to 1, behind Van Mungo.

In the American League, the critical series between the place-setting Tigers and the second-place Senators continued to be a battle of inches. Coping Dutch Leonard of Washington who had worked his well-known Indian sun over Detroit the day before, Hal Newhouse scored his tenth straight triumph over the N's in two years, 9 to 2.

19 For Newhouse
It was Newhouse's 19th victory of the season. This put the Detroit ace even with Dave (Boo) Ferriss, Boston Red Sox who got his bumps again as the Chicago White Sox nipped Boston under a 11 to 3 score.

Cleveland nosed out the Philadelphia Athletics in the ninth inning, 7 to 6.

The St. Louis Browns practically tied the fading New York Yankees for fifth place by slaughtering them 7 to 2.

Fair Or Foul

BY CHARLES EISENSTEIN
(Pinch-Hitting For Lawton Carver)
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Hold your hats, boys, and watch yourselves going around the curve.

We're in for a sports boom. The ingredients are fairly simple. You take a lot of hard-earned money and add one avid sports fan. Then stir gently while athlete after athlete gets his discharge from the services—and bingo!

How will things shape up? Let's take baseball for an example. And, as an example, baseball is all the good. Such returning vets as Kenny Gables, Charlie Ruffing, Dave Ferriss, and Hank Greenberg have proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that their sojourn in uniform has not been detrimental to their playing ability.

All Stars Returning
All your stars will be back—Stan Musial, Mickey Owen, Bobby Doerr, Joe Dimaggio, Tommy Henrich, Joe Gordon, Cecil Travis, Taft Wright, Roy Weatherly, Maurice Van Robays, Elbie Fletcher, Johnny Mize, Pete Reiser, Enos Slaughter, Ray Mueller, Don Padgett, Phil Buzotte, Stan Spencer, Jim Tabor, Dick Winters, Ted Williams, Luke Appling, Ken Keltner, Danny Littler, Ray Mack, Merrill May, Terry Moore, Jimmy Brown, Billy Herman, Pinky Higgins, Charlie Keller.

And among the returning pitchers—well, there's Johnny Beazley, Tom Bridges, Spud Chandler, Bob Feller, Larry French, Denny Galehouse, Harry Gumbert, Kirby Higbe, Ted Huxson, Howard Kreevich, Ted Lyons, Johnny Murphy, Vern Olsen, Howie Poller, Schoolboy Rowe, Virgil Trucks, Johnny Vandermeer and Ernie White.

Those lists haven't been printed just to take up space. They are for the purpose of whetting your long-suppressed appetite and making the major league baseball fan drool down his vest.

See Baseball Boom

And, of course, the above list represents only the minutest fraction of those ballplayers who will be returning from the wars to the diamond.

The minor leagues are in for an even greater benefit than the majors, for whereas the big leagues kept going by hook and by crook and by some awfully crazy ballplaying—all through the war, only the top-flight minors stayed in operation. The others just shut down—not for lack of talent (look at the majors!), but merely for lack of nine men to a side.

The sports boom has set in. It may well be the greatest age of athletics in the history of the world. Sports, like everything else, will go international. How many fans will show up at that long-heralded "Louis Conn" match? A hundred thousand? A million? A billion? And as we shall the great American people, as we said at the beginning of this piece, hold your hats, boys.

You ain't seen nothing yet.

Sgt. Johnny Schroyer of Connelville, former Penn State grid star who lost his right leg at Anzio, plans to re-enter college in November. He has already acquired an official leg at the Thomas M. England General Hospital, Atlantic City, N. J.

Blind Bogey At Hills Tonight

Another blind bogey event will be staged tonight at the Castle Hills golf course by the Dubber Dan club. The players will gather at 6 o'clock, for the first event under peacetime regulations.

The event is open to all golfers in New Castle and vicinity who care to participate. Each player picks a handicap that gets him in between 30 and 45. A drawing is held when all scores are in, and prizes awarded the winning contestants.

Second Threatens Lead Of Epworth In Church League

Second U. P. Blasts First U. P. Two Points Behind Epworth; T. Baum Medalist

Second U. P. church golf team by walloping the First U. P. swingers last night 5 to 1 at the Castle Hills course find themselves only two points out of first place in the torrid second half championship battle. Epworth defeated the First Presbyterians 4 to 2 to keep the lead with 30 points to 28 for the rampaging Second U. P. stars. First U. P. dropped to third place with 25 points.

Mahoning, losing to Highland 4 to 1, practically eliminated themselves from the race. The matches next Thursday should prove highly interesting with Second battling Highland and Epworth tangle with the First Baptist team.

Tom Baum Medalist
Tom Baum, of the First Christians, veteran of the links, shot himself a par round sizzling 37 card on the back nine last night to grab the medalist honors, with Fred Scheppele of the First U. P. team recording a very nice 38 card. Other low cards were Fred Palmer, 39; Clyde Jackson, 39; Bob Mills, 39; Jimmy Dart, 40; Ben Orcutt, 40; William "Bill" Boston, 40; Corbin, 40; Lou Lautenschlager, 41; Freddy Williams, 42; William Nunn, 42; Earl Jarrett, 42; Ted Woodrow, 42 and Wayne Moore, 42.

August 29—S. S. Legion at Sons of Italy, Gaston Park; Wagner at Second Baptist, B. T. Washington; N. H. Cards at Fannins, Lehigh; Falcons at Elks, Washington Field.

High Gridders Report Tonight At Stadium At 7

Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh Plans First Practice Session Saturday

ALL CANDIDATES MUST REPORT

New Castle High school football team looking forward to its first peacetime grid season in four years, will get started on the 1945 grid season this morning at 10 o'clock at the stadium. It was announced by Head Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh. The squad will have its first meeting tonight at 7 p. m. sharp at the stadium.

Granted an extra week of practice this fall the New Castle High team is expected to take full advantage of it. Several practices will be held at the stadium next week before the boys shove off for camp at Mudgy Creek Falls.

Open With Grove City
New Castle High's 1945 kickoff will be on Friday night, September 7, with Grove City the opponents under the lights. This leaves three in which to get ready.

With a wealth of 1944 material reporting this season the locals should have one of the strongest teams in years. Fully ten letter winners are back in the lineup.

New Castle with a green inexperienced eleven last year had one of the worst years since Bridenbaugh took over here, but that is water under the dam and this year New Castle will try to do better. The heights to which it has been used to these past many years.

Coach Bridenbaugh asks that all boys be prompt in reporting at the stadium tonight.

Grid Outlook At Penn State Best In Several Years

Coach Bob Higgins Says Material Is Good As 1945 Season Looms

STATE IS FACING TOUGH SCHEDULE

By BOB BUTLER
(International News Service Sports Writer)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Aug. 17.—Coach Bob Higgins today hoped against hope that he will be able to throw a veteran grid team into the 1945 schedule of his Nittany Lions when the season opens six weeks hence.

A team of experience in every position is now available and Higgins hopes the Lion line will average over 200 pounds and the backfield will push toward 180.

A handful of able frosh and ex-servicemen will be making the veteran gridlers for regular berths. As Higgins looks over his material, he is contented enough except for a small problem of what to do for tackles and a blocking back.

Veteran Tackles
Two veteran tackles are on hand. But both have old injuries which may stop their show at any moment. Howard Caskey, of Pittsburgh, and Marino Marchi, of Glassboro, will probably be given the nod. If their old battle scars don't show down, Higgins may call on Navy Trainee Johnny Nolan, of Glen Falls, N. Y., or Freddie France, of Pittsburgh.

Higgins also has two likely looking freshmen in Earl Fowler, of Camp Hill, and John Finley, of Paxtang. Even for a good tough blocker to lead the interference, Higgins has some choice. Nick Rancini, of Philadelphia, Dino Tenclozzi, of Sayre, and Freshman Charley Murray and Marty Vester, both of Uniontown, are all likely candidates.

Weak At Center
Higgins is not "pinpointing with pride" to the Lions' pivot position either, but he is hoping Freshman Charley Drazenovich, of Brownsville, a 230-pounder, will force Sophomores Stan Kramarz, of Alliquippa, and Bob McCoy, of Lock Haven, into turning in better performances than last year.

For guards, Higgins has three pairs with two Navy Trainees likely to takeoff with the kickoff. They are Carl Dimmerling, of North Braddock, and Bob Rutkowski, of Natrona. Then the Lion mentor has John Simon, of Brownsville, and Jim Matthews, of Grimsbury, for relief and Bill Rogers, of State College, and Ralph Flamming, of Coatesville, as the freshmen prospects.

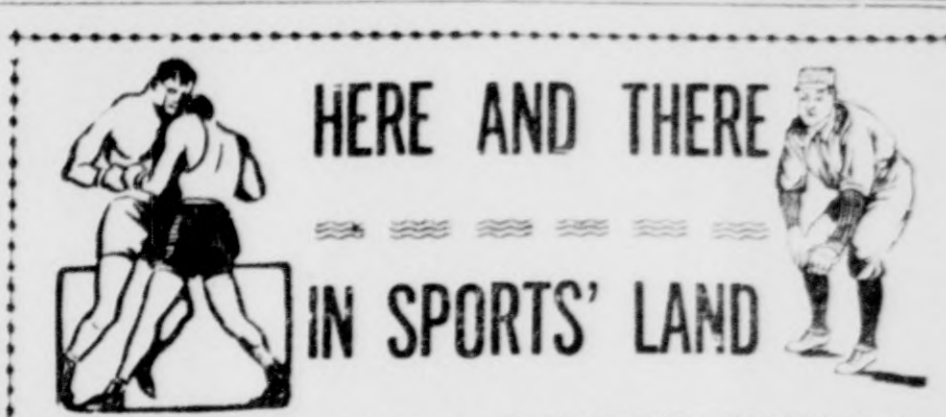

Good Backfield
Navy Trainee Bob Gernand, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Don Miltenberger, of Easton, will be Penn State's starters at the flanks and three freshmen—Stan Kramarz, of Alliquippa, and Fred Bell, of Erie, and Ross Herron, of Hiller—will be understudies.

Higgins, who will enter his tenth season as Lion mentor, is pretty happy about the rest of his backfield. Elwood Petrel, 140-pound triple threat from Easton, will take care of the tailback duties in Penn State's single wing attack. Still he has competition in Joe Tappin, linebacker and former mauler, Bob Kitzner, of Shade township, and Willie Triplett, of Chesham, Pa. The last two are freshmen.

For wingback Coach Bob can choose among Larry Spencer, of Oak Park, Ill., both Navy Trainees, and Larry Cooper, of Pittsburgh. At Belas, of Kingston, and Ralph Ventresca, ex-soldier from Piquette, look good for fullback while a third prospect is Joe Fulcoli, a hard-hitting freshman from Springfield, Montgomery County.

The Lions won six and dropped three last season Higgins hopes to do as well this fall. The Lions open September 29 against Muhlenberg and follow up with Colgate, Navy, Bucknell, Syracuse, Temple, Michigan State and Pittsburgh in that order. October 27 is an open date.

Lieut. Col. Art Yeit of Jeannette, former Penn State footballer, has been assigned to Camp Blanding, Fla., after 30 months in the India-China Burma theatre. He soon will complete his fifth year in the United States army.

TED MCGREW, scout for the Phils, ascribes Paul Waner as "the greatest hitter baseball has had" explaining that "he hit line drives every time for 21 years and hit the ball right on the nose." He asserted Babe Ruth unquestionably had the greatest power and the long major league career. Paul Waner gets my vote." Prior to becoming a scout McGrew was a major league umpire.

Years ago George Chip and Jack Dillon conducted a pugilistic war between themselves. If memory served correctly they fought about 16 times. And then there were Jack Britton and Ted Lewis. Whenever they were not boxing someone else they were fighting each other. The present pugilistic "family affair" is being staged by Holman Williams and Kid Cocco, middleweights. They have fought 19 times. Kid Cocco has won nine times and Williams, eight. Two of the fights ended in draws.

Some local fans are preparing to witness the Jimmy Ravins-Archie Moore fight in Cleveland next Wednesday. Ravins will possibly be a two to one favorite. Jimmy Dunn, Cleveland, was a snub on Gold-Timers day. Willie Davis, heavyweight wrestler, holds a bachelor's degree from Virginia Polytechnic where he studied animal husbandry. Willie Davis, former flyweight, who boxed here, attended Pitt after laying the gloves away. Tony Herrera who got his eastern start in July bowl, later went to college in Chicago.

Joe Holahan, scout for the Pittsburgh Steelers, would like to wrap his arms around some good grid prospects. Not so long ago he was here in quest of players. Russell Baxter should learn a lot about boxing through exhibitions with Billy Conn, heavyweight title contender. They're appearing in the Third Army area now, according to reports. If you can remember when the clothes tossed in a pair of suspenders when you bought a new suit you're growing old. ... Twenty be long until they're cheering Ne-Ca-Hi.

One of the factors that may be keeping the Washington Senators close to the American League-leading Detroit Tigers is the loss of knuckleball pitchers the Senators have. Hitters, it seems don't like to bat against knuckleball artists and as a result, when they go to the plate to face pitchers Leonard, Niggeling, Wolf and the rest they lack confidence.

Though she has been barred from amateur golf competition for several years, Mrs. Mildred (Babe Dierksen) Zaharias will participate in the Women's Western Amateur tournament beginning August 26 at the Knollwood club in Lake Forest, Ill. The Babe was reinstated as an amateur last year. She is expected to be an odds-on favorite for the title.

Cleveland entry in the proposed All-America football conference has already had two names though the team has played nary a game. In a naming contest held among the Cleveland football fans the title of "Panthers" won. Then, somebody discovered that many years ago there was a Cleveland pro football outfit of that name. So—the name has been changed. To "Browns." This is in honor of the club's coach, Paul Brown, who is also general manager. He formerly coached Massillon and Ohio State and is well known here.
